We acknowledge that we meet and work in the Treaty 1 Land, the traditional land of the Anishinaabe, Cree, and Dakota people and the homeland of the Metis Nation.

We are grateful for their stewardship of this land and their hospitality which allows us to live, work and serve God the Creator here.

3rd Sunday of Easter

Prelude Herr Christ, der einig Gottes Sohn (BuxWV 192) Dietrich Buxtehude

Processional Hymn Ye Choirs of New Jerusalem CP 216

1 Ye choirs of new Jerusalem, your sweetest notes employ,
the paschal victory to hymn in strains of holy joy.

3 Triumphant in his glory now to him all power is given; to him in one communion bow all saints in earth and heaven.

2 For Judah's Lion bursts his chains, crushing the serpent's head;
and cries aloud through death's domains to wake the imprisoned dead.

4 All glory to the Father be,
all glory to the Son,
all glory, Holy Ghost to thee,
while endless ages run.

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Celebrant May his grace and peace be with you.
People May he fill our hearts with joy.

Celebrant Almighty God,
People to you all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from you no secrets are hidden.
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant O God,

People your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread. Open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in his redeeming work, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 2:14a 36-41

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them.

Therefore, let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified.' Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, 'Brothers, what should we do?' Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.' And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, 'Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.’ So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

Psalm 116

I Love You, Lord

Tune: Breslau CP 431

1. I love you, Lord, because you heard,
You always listened to my plea,
Because when I have called on you,
You have inclined your ear to me.

2. The cords of death entangled me,
I came to misery and woe;
I called upon the Name of God:
“O Lord, I pray you, save my soul.”

3. How then shall I return my thanks
For all the Lord God’s loving care?
I will lift up salvation’s cup
And raise my hands to God in prayer.

4. With all the people God has called,
I make my faithful vows aright;
The death of those who serve the Lord
Is always precious in God’s sight.

5. O Lord, I am your handmaid’s child,
Who serves you truly all my days;
I call upon your Name and bring
My humble sacrifice of praise.

6. With all the people God has called
I surely will fulfill my vows
Within your walls, Jerusalem,
And in the courts of my Lord’s house.

Second Reading

1 Peter 1:17-23

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

Gospel

Luke 24:13-35

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, 'What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?' They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, 'Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?' He asked them, 'What things?' They replied, 'The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.' Then he said to them, 'Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?' Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, 'Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.' So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, 'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?' That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, 'The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!' Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Sermon Bishop Donald Phillips

The Nicene Creed

Celebrant Let us confess our faith, as we say People We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father.
With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Let us pray to our risen Lord on behalf of the Church, the world, and all people according to their need.

A brief silence

We give you thanks, O Lord, for walking with us on our Emmaus roads. Thank you for being the fulfilment of the words of the Prophets and for showing us the way, the truth, and the life. Thank you for making yourself known to us in the breaking of the bread. Thank you for your patience with us when we are confused and bewildered and are consumed by our sadness and grief.

O risen Lord,

Arise in us.

Almighty God, your victory over sin and death has changed everything for us. Through the precious blood of your Son, we have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed. We pray that this reality transforms us in how we act and speak. Let this resurrection reality motivate us to love one another and you more deeply and sincerely.

O risen Lord,

Arise in us.

Bless this congregation with your abiding presence. Cause our hearts to burn within us as we hear your Word. Come to us in the breaking of the bread at your holy Table. Kindle sincere affection and love between us all. And make us eager and tireless in telling our family, friends and neighbours about your love for them, which has triumphed over sin and death.

O risen Lord,

Arise in us.

Be the companion and comfort of all who live in fear, isolation, or quarantine. Walk with them and reveal your resurrected presence to them in their time of need. Be the sure defence of all those who are caring for the ill, the suffering, and the dying. Lord, their hands are your hands even as they perform their work. We ask you to bless those hands, to protect and to care for them.

O risen Lord,

Arise in us.

Loving God, we confess that too often our faith is uncertain, our forgiveness too slow, and our compassion wavering. Too often we have put our trust in the powers and values of this world, instead of your resurrection power and kingdom values. We confess that we have strayed from your design and will for our lives, and we are deeply sorry. We ask for your compassion and forgiveness, for you to take us by the hand, that we might say: my Lord and my God.

O risen Lord,

Arise in us.

O healing Lord, we plead on behalf of all who suffer in body, mind, heart or spirit—especially: Chantal, Barbara, Margaret, Kay, Chris, Arthur, Jock, Harald, Shirley, Judy, Ann, Elizabeth and Russ. Rescue their lives from death, their eyes from tears, and their feet from stumbling. Be gracious and compassionate to them, so that they may walk again in the land of the living, and praise your steadfast love towards them.

O risen Lord,

Arise in us.

With gratitude and affection, we remember your servants whose death is precious in your sight. Stay with us who still walk the long Emmaus roads of this earthly life, for we, too, are your servants, whom you have redeemed. Bestow the grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit upon us. Deliver us from the bonds of sin and sorrow; and teach us to love each other. Lead us, dear Jesus, into your Father's house. There, with everyone whom you have delivered from death, we will lift your Cup of salvation; eat your Bread of Life; behold you face to face; and adore you in the power of the Spirit forever.

O risen Lord,

Arise in us.

We praise and magnify you, dear Jesus. Accept our prayers and lay them at the feet of your Father, who with you and the Holy Spirit reigns gloriously as our Lord and our God, now and forever. Amen.

Jesus Lives!

CP 239

1 Jesus lives! Thy terrors now can no more, O death, appal us.
Jesus lives! By this we know thou, O grave, canst not enthrall us.
Alleluia!

3 Jesus lives! For us he died;
then, alone to Jesus living, pure in heart may we abide, glory to our Saviour giving.
Alleluia!

2 Jesus lives! Henceforth is death but the gate of life immortal; this shall calm our trembling breath when we pass its gloomy portal.
Alleluia!

4 Jesus lives! Our hearts know well nought from us his love shall sever; life, nor death, nor powers of hell tear us from his keeping ever.
Alleluia!

Offering Prayer

Celebrant Creator of all,

People you wash away our sins in water, you give us new birth by the Spirit and redeem us in the blood of Christ.
As we celebrate the resurrection, renew your gift of life within us.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the risen Lord. Amen.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth;
we give you thanks and praise for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true paschal lamb who has taken away the sin of the world.
By his death he destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us eternal life.
Therefore, joining our voices with the whole company of heaven, we sing our joyful hymn of praise to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus

Lord. Ho - san - na in the high est.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life. Therefore, Father, according to his command,

All

We re - mem - ber his death, we pro - claim his re - sur - rect - tion, we a - wait his com - ing in glo - ry.

Celebrant and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all; Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your sons and daughters;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation;
by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Celebrant And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us,
we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Anthem

Bleib bei uns J. Rheinberger, arr. Sandra Bender
(Yanna Courtney, Sandra Bender, Jocelyn Bartel) Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent.

Celebrant

All Glory to God, whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Hymn

Truly, He Comes to Us

CP 204

1 Truly, he comes to us: darkness is ended; now night is over, his light is ascended:
ultimate sunrise, that floods all creation, bringing his secret from death's desolation.

2 Stripped of the grave-clothes, the body now glorious, rises immortal, forever victorious;
come to fulfil all the prophets have spoken;
promise of life that will never be broken.

3 Give God the glory and glad adoration, from whom and through whom and in whom, creation looks for the joy which, in Christ, we inherit:

praising the Father, the Son and the Spirit!

Notices

Prayers from Parishioners: During the coming weeks you may wish to have a loved one's name added to our Parish Prayer List. This list, which is usually included in the Prayers of the People each week, has now been added to the Cycle of Prayers. (see above) Please be sure to email or call the office if you wish to have names added to this list. The list will be updated on a weekly basis.

Diocesan Update: Please continue to follow Bishop Geoff's most current Directive on the Diocesan Website. <http://www.rupertsland.ca/>

Our church office is now closed in response to the directive from the Government of Manitoba. Catherine will be working from home and is able to responding to email and voice mails from home during regular business hours. (Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.) Catherine will also be available for calls and/or picking up messages on Thursdays and Fridays. When leaving a message or sending an email please indicate if it is an urgent matter.

Prayer Group: this week the Prayer Group is praying for Kay Brown, Coralie Bryant, Sandra & Tom Buhr, Anne Caird, Claudette & Donald Cameron, Cornalee Carrington, Nancy & Don Charleson and their families.

Tablets needed!! All Saints parishioners, who are in hospitals and care homes, are lacking the ability to be able to access our services. Our hope is to give them the tools that they need to access our Sunday services and website. We would really appreciate it if you could call the church office, should you have a used tablet that you are willing to loan or donate.

Church Expenses: Unfortunately, the costs associated with running a parish continues, which means it is important that we try and maintain our weekly offering to the church. The request from both the Treasurer and Corporation is to reach out to our community and remind them of this ongoing need. If you would like to be put on preauthorized payments it will make your efforts much more seamless. We can provide the forms to make this happen. Simply contact the office and someone will get back to you.

Local Food Banks Need Help: We know that the need for donations to local food banks has increased and the efforts to provide support is becoming more strained. If you can drop food off to your local food bank, make a donation, or would like us to assist in delivering items please let us know.

Need Supplies?: For those of you who are shut in and unable to get out to pick up needed supplies, please let us know. We have a number of people who have offered to help individuals should anyone have a need in our community.

Next week's readings are: Acts 2:42-47; 1 Peter 2:19-25; John 10:1-10
