We acknowledge that we meet and work in the Treaty 1 Land, the traditional land of the Anishinaabe, Cree, and Dakota people and the homeland of the Metis Nation.

We are grateful for their stewardship of this land and their hospitality which allows us to live, work and serve God the Creator here.

Processional Hymn:

O Glorious Day

CP 253

1 O glorious day when God's love overflowed and all its beauty on the earth bestowed;
the Spirit gave all creatures life and health and on them breathed the life of God's own self.
In all creation, in each tiny flower,
in every life we see God's living power.

2 Most wonderful of all that holy dawn
in which the Saviour of the world was born!
The Spirit rested on a Hebrew maid and God in human form came to our aid.
Then, Holy Spirit, your great love excelled when we our God in flesh and blood beheld.

3 Christ rose from death, victorious over sin;
the ascended Lord now reigns, the world to win;
and on the church that it may witness give,
God's love was poured, that through it all might live.
On this fresh Pentecost, life-giving Lord, come, spread through us your saving love abroad.

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Celebrant May his grace and peace be with you.
People May he fill our hearts with joy.

Celebrant Almighty God,
People to you all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from you no secrets are hidden.
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant Almighty and everliving God,
People who fulfilled the promises of Easter by sending us your Holy Spirit and opening to every race and nation
the way of life eternal, keep us in the unity of your Spirit,
that every tongue may tell of your glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

"In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

REFRAIN:

O Lord, how manifold / are your works!

In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is / full of your creatures.

Yonder is the great and wide sea, with its living things too / many to number, creatures both / small and mighty.

There move the ships, and there is that lev- / iathan, which you have made / for the sport of it.

All of them / look to you, to give them their food / in due season. REFRAIN

You give it to them; they / gather it in;
you open your hand and they are filled / with good things.
You hide your face and / they are terrified;
you take away their breath, and they die and return / to their dust.
You send forth your spirit and they / are created;
and so you renew the face / of the earth.
May the glory of the Lord en- / dure for ever;
may the Lord rejoice in / all his works. REFRAIN

I will sing to the Lord as / long as I live;
I will praise my God while I / have my being.
May these words of mine / please the Lord;
I will rejoice / in my God. REFRAIN

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:3b-13

No one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says ‘Let Jesus be cursed!’ and no one can say ‘Jesus is Lord’ except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel John 7:37-39

On the last day of the festival, the great day, while Jesus was standing there, he cried out, 'Let anyone who is thirsty come to me, and let the one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said, "Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living water."' Now he said this about the Spirit, which believers in him were to receive; for as yet there was no Spirit, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Sermon The Rev. Brent Neumann

The Nicene Creed

Celebrant Let us confess our faith, as we say

People We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father.
With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

In the power of the Spirit, let us pray to God, that through his Son, the will of God is accomplished for the Church, the world, and all people for whom we pray.

A brief silence

Almighty God, we thank you for giving us the same Spirit that filled your beloved Son and his disciples. Thank you for the gifts of the Spirit, given so we may bless and praise you, and proclaim your love to those who need it most.

O Breath of God,

Fill us with life anew.

Holy Lord, pour out your Spirit upon the Church. Kindle in it the flame of truth, holiness, faithfulness and kindness. Make it steadfast in suffering, faithful in witness, generous in service, and ardent in worship. In all things conform it to Christ your Son, so that, through your Spirit, many people may be drawn to faith in Him.

O Breath of God,

Fill us with life anew.

We pray that your Spirit will renew the hearts, minds, worship, and life of this congregation. Make us lovely and loving; joyful and kind; faithful and forgiving; generous and patient; humble and valiant. Make us truly look like Jesus; and use us to draw others into his nearer presence.

O Breath of God,

Fill us with life anew.

Through your Spirit, you gave the apostles words to proclaim your saving truth to pilgrims from many nations. Teach us to use words wisely and well. Give us a passion for speaking truth in love. By that same Spirit, discipline our tongues to refrain from words that hurt our neighbour, from telling convenient lies, and from rhetoric that inflames base passions. And to those who cannot speak, impart your Spirit which searches the heart and intercedes before you with sighs too deep for words.

O Breath of God,

Fill us with life anew.

O God, our Comforter, many of your faithful people are not able to gather with fellow believers in your sanctuary on this, the Lord's Day. As you promised your disciples that you would not leave them comfortless when you departed from them, be with all those who are struggling with being separated from family, from friends, and from fellow believers, including this parish.

O Breath of God,

Fill us with life anew.

Bring healing and hope also to everyone who has been afflicted by suffering, sorrow, sin or grief, and who need the unction of your life-giving Spirit. Especially we remember before you: Chantal, Barbara, Margaret, Kay, Chris, Arthur, Jock, Harald, Shirley, Judy, Evelyn, Lee, Lynn, Cory, Liz, Ellie, Elizabeth and Russ. Your Spirit brings renewed life to all creation; and so we pray that you would grant that renewal to your servants, and to all who care for them.

O Breath of God,

Fill us with life anew.

Thank you, heavenly Father, for receiving our beloved dead into your arms. Thank you for the life, death and resurrection of your dear Son, who has bestowed the Spirit of life upon all who trust in him. Breathe that Spirit into our lives, and keep our eyes fixed on Jesus. Raise us up in the power of the Spirit and in union with Jesus Christ, so that with the whole redeemed and renewed creation, we may adore and worship you forever.

O Breath of God,

Fill us with life anew.

Almighty God, fulfil now our prayers and petitions as may be best for us, granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come eternal life; for you, Father, are good and loving, and we glorify you through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, in the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Amen.

(Prayers prepared by Dietrich Bartel, based on lutherancore.website.)

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;
he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table.
Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.
Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy upon us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Offertory Hymn

Breathe on Me, Breath of God

CP 649

1 Breathe on me, breath of God;
fill me with life anew,
that I may love what thou dost love,
and do what thou wouldst do.

3 Breathe on me, breath of God,
till I am wholly thine,
until this earthly part of me glows with the fire divine.

2 Breathe on me, breath of God,
until my heart is pure,
until my will is one with thine
to do and to endure.

4 Breathe on me, breath of God:
so shall I never die,
but live with thee the perfect life
of thine eternity.

Offering Prayer

Celebrant Giver of life,
People receive all we offer you this day.
Let the Spirit you bestow on your Church continue to work in the world through the hearts of all who believe.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Holy Communion

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth;
we give you thanks and praise
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
In fulfilment of your promise you pour forth your Spirit upon us, filling us with gifts and leading us into all truth.
You give us power to proclaim your gospel to all nations and to serve you as a royal priesthood.
Therefore we join our voices with angels and archangels, and with all those in whom the Spirit dwells,
to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high est. Blest is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Celebrant

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power;
your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love.
You loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Saviour.
Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
he lived as one of us, yet without sin.
To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation;
to prisoners, freedom;
to the sorrowful, joy.
To fulfil your purpose he gave himself up to death and, rising from the grave, destroyed death and made the whole creation new.

And that we might live no longer for ourselves,
but for him who died and rose for us,
he sent the Holy Spirit,
his own first gift for those who believe,
to complete his work in the world,
and to bring to fulfilment the sanctification of all.

Father, recalling Christ's death and descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand,
and awaiting his coming in glory;
we pray that in your goodness and mercy
your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, that we may become one body and one spirit,
a living sacrifice in Christ to the praise of your name.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
all honour and glory are yours,
almighty God and Father,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Celebrant And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us,
we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. (1Cor. 10 16b-17)

The Celebrant invites the people to share in communion and may say, Celebrant The gifts of God for the People of God.

All Thanks be to God.

The people then receive communion with these words.

The body of Christ. Amen.

Celebrant Father,
All may we live in the unity of your Holy Spirit,
that we may show forth his gifts to all the world.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Glory to God,
All whose power, working in us,
 can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
 Glory to God from generation to generation,
 in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

Hymn	Holy Spirit, Come with Power	CP 643
1 Holy Spirit, come with power, breathe into our aching night. We expect you this glad hour, waiting for your strength and light. We are fearful, we are ailing, we are weak and selfish too. Break upon your congregation, give us vigour, life anew.	2 Holy Spirit, come with fire burn us with your presence new. Let us as one might choir sing our hymn of praise to you. Burn away our wasted sadness and enflame us with your love. Burst upon your congregation, give us gladness from above.

3 Holy Spirit, bring you message, burn and breathe each word anew deep into our tired living till we strive your work to do.
Teach us love and trusting kindness, lend our hands to those who hurt.
Breathe upon your congregation and inspire us with your word.

Dismissal

Leader Go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit. Alleluia!

Our Mission Statement

All Saints Anglican Church is dedicated to be a faithful mission, to proclaim the word of God and become a living example through love, peace, justice and equality within a diverse community.

Those celebrating birthdays this week are Tawnya Brookes, Gregory Liverpool, Anthony Waterman, Donald Oramasionwu, Marty Weeks, Kay Brown,
Mary Bunting, Rick Fast and Maeva Kennedy.

Cycle of Prayer –May 31, 2020

In the Anglican Communion worldwide: we pray for La Iglesia Anglicana de Mexico, The Most Rev. Francisco Moreno - Presiding Bishop of La Iglesia Anglicana de Mexico & Bishop of Northern Mexico.

Anglican Church of Canada, Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada: we pray for Linda, our Primate; Mark, our National Indigenous Anglican Bishop; Greg, our Metropolitan; Geoffrey, our Bishop; Jason, the MNO Synodical Bishop; Michael, our Companion Diocese Bishop, for Bishops Andrew Asbil, Peter Fenty, Riscylla Walsh Shaw, Kevin Robertson, Jenny Andison and the people of the Diocese of Toronto.

Diocese of Rupert's Land: we pray for our congregations and our communities.

In our parish family: we pray for Chantal, Barbara, Margaret, Kay, Chris, Arthur, Jock, Harald, Shirley, Judy, Evelyn, Lee, Lynn, Cory, Liz, Ellie, Elizabeth and Russ.

Notices

As you are aware, West Broadway Commons will be completed early in 2021. The project presents an opportunity for All Saints to increase our revenue stream, build financial capital and have the means to grow our congregation.

As an initial step, we want to undertake a Business Process Review to re-evaluate our current organization structure and administration to ensure that we are well-equipped to govern and manage in our new reality. Once this is done, we hope to start a process in the fall to engage the entire congregation in a strategic review of our church, its Mission and offerings.

The Corporation and Vestry approved the engagement of Judy Murphy from Murphy's Executive Leadership to assist us in our Business Process Review, guiding the development of the way in which we need to operate in the future. In the next two weeks, she will be interviewing a limited number of people and surveying a broad cross-section of the congregation. The interviews are quite costly, so we are keeping the numbers tightly controlled. Anyone, though, is invited to participate in the survey. If you want to make sure that you have a chance to provide your views in the survey, please contact Catherine and let her know at allsts@mymts.net or (204) 786-4765. The survey is completely confidential and all the results will be merged together. It will be sent out by email but those who do not have internet can participate by mail. Please advise Catherine if you cannot receive it by email.

Prayers from Parishioners: Please be sure to email Catherine at allsts@mymts.net or call the office at 204 786 4765 if you wish to have names added to this list. The list is updated on a weekly basis.

Diocesan Update: Please continue to follow Bishop Geoff's most current Directive on the Diocesan Website. <http://www.rupertsland.ca/>

Our church office continues to stay closed as per the directive from the Government of Manitoba. Catherine will be working from home and is able to respond to email and voice mail from home during regular business hours. (Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.) Catherine will also be available for calls and/or picking up messages on Mondays and Fridays. When leaving a message or sending an email please indicate if it is an urgent matter.

Prayer Group: this week the Prayer Group is praying for Sandra Glassey, Elizabeth Gould, Barbara Granger, Elaine & Doug Gunn, Judy Hall and their families.

Tablets needed!! All Saints parishioners, who are in hospitals and care homes, are lacking the ability to be able to access our services. Our hope is to give them the tools that they need to access our Sunday services and website. We would really appreciate it if you could call the church office, should you have a used tablet that you are willing to loan or donate.

Church Expenses: Unfortunately, the costs associated with running a parish continues, which means it is important that we try and maintain our weekly offering to the church. The request from both the Treasurer and Corporation is to reach out to our community and remind them of this ongoing need. If you would like to be put on preauthorized payments it will make your efforts much more seamless. We can provide the forms to make this happen. Simply contact the office and someone will get back to you.

Local Food Banks Need Help: We know that the need for donations to local food banks has increased and the efforts to provide support is becoming more strained. If you can drop food off to your local food bank, make a donation, or would like us to assist in delivering items please let us know.

Need Supplies?: For those of you who are shut in and unable to get out to pick up needed supplies, please let us know. We have a number of people who have offered to help individuals should anyone have a need in our community.

Next week's readings are: Genesis 1:1-2:4a; 2 Corinthians 13:11-13; Matthew 28:16-20
