Trinity Sunday

Parish Holy Communion (from Reserved Sacrament)

Prelude Wir Glauben All' (The Creed) J. G. Walther

Processional Hymn: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty CP 1

1 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee:
holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

2 Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore thee, casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee, which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

3 Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide thee, though our sinful human gaze thy glory may not see,
only thou art holy; there is none beside thee, perfect in power, in love, and purity.

4 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name in earth and sky and sea;
holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity.

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

First Reading

Genesis 1:1 – 2:4a

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, 'Let there be light'; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

And God said, 'Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.' So, God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

And God said, 'Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.' And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, 'Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.' And it was so. The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

And God said, 'Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.' And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

And God said, 'Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.' So, God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, 'Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.' And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

And God said, 'Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.' And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, 'Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.' So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.' God said, 'See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.’ And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus, the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So, God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.
In the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens.

Psalm 8: O Lord, Our God

Tune: Twenty-Fourth (CP 487)

1. O Lord our God, in all the earth
Your great Name is extolled;
Your majesty is far beyond
What heaven itself can hold.

4. Yet you have made us only less
In honour and renown
Than all the heavenly hosts above.
You set on us a crown.

2. You have ordained that children’s lips
Should praise your Name today,
That all your enemies and foes
Should have no more to say.

5. All sheep and oxen, beasts and birds,
We rule in your great Name;
O Lord our God, in all the world
Your glory we proclaim.

3. When I look up and see the moon
And stars in heaven above.
Lord, why should you remember us
And visit us in love?

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Anthem

Cherubic Hymn to the Trinity

P. Tchaikovsky

Let us represent the cherubim in mystic harmony.
Praise the Trinity, raise our three-fold song to the Trinity.
Let us now cast aside all this earthly life.
May we receive God the King of all, who enters in glory with mighty hosts of angels. Alleluia!

(The anthem was recorded by the All Saints choir at Gordon Clarke’s memorial service, January 25, 2020.)

Gradual

Blessed Jesus, At Your Word

CP 559

1 Blessed Jesus, at your word
we are gathered all to hear you.
Let our hearts and souls be stirred now to seek and love and fear you.
By your gospels pure and holy, teach us, Lord to love you solely.

2 All our knowledge, sense and sight lie in deepest darkness shrouded till your Spirit breaks our night with your beams of truth unclouded.
You alone to God can win us,
you must work all good within us.

Matthew 28:16-20

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

The Nicene Creed

Celebrant Let us confess our faith, as we say

People We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father.
With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

In the power of the Spirit, let us pray to God, that through his Son, the will of God is accomplished for the Church, the world, and all people for whom we pray.

A brief silence

O Holy Parent, before time You dwelt in love with the Son and the Spirit. In love you gave birth to the universe, filled it with life, and gave birth to us. Through your Son you redeemed the world and you sustain it through your Spirit, our advocate and comforter. We give you thanks for your care for us, for your love for us, and for sustaining us.

O Triune God,

Receive our prayer.

Creator God, you created this world and blessed it and called it good; and you have entrusted it to us as your stewards. Forgive us for misusing what you so lovingly have provided. Grant that we may learn to use the bounties of the sea, land and air with wisdom and prudence. Give us the wisdom and the courage to let your creation heal from the wounds and the destruction which we have inflicted. Give gentle and loving hearts to all who care for the land, the fields and forests, and all the creatures who inhabit the earth, its waters and the air.

O Triune God,

Receive our prayer.

You commissioned us to go into all the world, making disciples, baptizing in your Name, and teaching others to observe all you have commanded. We acknowledge that we have often confused your truth with our own traditions and way of life. In your name, the Church has often justified intolerance and violence, and masked politics as theology. We humbly ask for forgiveness, and pray that as we spread your word, we spread it even as you have taught us: blessed are the poor in spirit, the meek and the merciful, the peacemaker and the persecuted.

O Triune God,
Receive our prayer.

O God, our Comforter, many of your faithful people are not able to gather with fellow believers in your sanctuary on this, the Lord's Day. Be with all those who are struggling with being separated from family, from friends, and from fellow believers, including this parish. Bless, heal, and comfort all who are beset by heartache, despair, pain, confusion, shame or sorrow. Especially we pray for: Chantal, Barbara, Margaret, Kay, Chris, Arthur, Jock, Harald, Shirley, Judy, Evelyn, Lee, Lynn, Cory, Liz, Ellie, Elizabeth and Russ. Raise them up from the dark valleys in which they wander; be their light and life, their guide and joy. And return them to the fellowship of all who love and pray for them.

O Triune God,
Receive our prayer.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal: we praise, bless and adore you for showing your mercy to those who have died trusting in your promises. Visit us with your wisdom, love, and forgiveness. Teach us the moves and graces of your triune fellowship. Help us to practice them with one another, for our mutual edification. Bring us into your presence, so that we may sit at table with you and with the whole company of the redeemed. Let us gaze upon your blessed countenance and adore you most joyfully as our Lord and God, O Creator, Redeemer, and Comforter, now and forever and unto the ages of ages.

O Triune God,
Receive our prayer.

Almighty God, fulfil now our prayers and petitions as may be best for us, granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come eternal life; for you, O God, are good and loving, and we glorify you through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, in the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.
Amen.

(Prayers prepared by Dietrich Bartel, based on lutherancore.website.)

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;
he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table.
Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.
Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy upon us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Offertory Hymn

Yours the Hand That Made Creation

CP 256

1 Yours the hand that made creation, womb of every constellation,
every species, every nation:
glory to the Three-in-One.

2 Jesus, from the first descending,
by your birth the broken mending,
Word of God the never-ending:
glory to the Three-in-One.

3 Holy Wisdom, ever near us, tongue of fire to teach all hearers, sanctify and guard and cheer us;
glory to the Three-in-One.

Offering Prayer

Celebrant Living God,

People receive all we offer you this day.

Grant that hearing your word and responding to your Spirit, we may share in your divine life.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Holy Communion

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth;
we give you thanks and praise,
because, in the mystery you disclose to us,
you reveal your glory
as the glory of your Son and the Holy Spirit:
three persons equal in majesty, undivided in splendour, yet one Lord, one God,
ever to be adored in your everlasting glory.
Therefore with all the company of heaven
we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high est. Blest is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Celebrant

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power;
your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love.
You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care,
so that, in obedience to you, our creator,
we might rule and serve all your creatures.
When our disobedience took us far from you,
you did not abandon us to the power of death.
You loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Saviour.
Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
he lived as one of us, yet without sin.
To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation;
to prisoners, freedom;
to the sorrowful, joy.
To fulfil your purpose he gave himself up to death and, rising from the grave, destroyed death and made the whole creation new.

And that we might live no longer for ourselves,
but for him who died and rose for us,
he sent the Holy Spirit,
his own first gift for those who believe,
to complete his work in the world,
and to bring to fulfilment the sanctification of all.

Father, recalling Christ's death and descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand,
and awaiting his coming in glory;
we pray that in your goodness and mercy
your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, that we may become one body and one spirit,
a living sacrifice in Christ to the praise of your name.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
all honour and glory are yours,
almighty God and Father,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Celebrant And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us,
we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. (1Cor. 10 16b-17)

The Celebrant invites the people to share in communion and may say,

Celebrant The gifts of God for the People of God.

All Thanks be to God.

The people then receive communion with these words.

The body of Christ. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty and eternal God,
All may we worship you in all we do,
and proclaim the glory of your majesty.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Glory to God,
All whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Notices

As you are aware, West Broadway Commons will be completed early in 2021. The project presents an opportunity for All Saints to increase our revenue stream, build financial capital and have the means to grow our congregation.

As an initial step, we want to undertake a Business Process Review to re-evaluate our current organization structure and administration to ensure that we are well-equipped to govern and manage in our new reality. Once this is done, we hope to start a process in the fall to engage the entire congregation in a strategic review of our church, its Mission and offerings.

The Corporation and Vestry approved the engagement of Judy Murphy from Murphy's Executive Leadership to assist us in our Business Process Review, guiding the development of the way in which we need to operate in the future. In the next two weeks, she will be interviewing a limited number of people and surveying a broad cross-section of the congregation. The interviews are quite costly, so we are keeping the numbers tightly controlled. Anyone, though, is invited to participate in the survey. If you want to make sure that you have a chance to provide your views in the survey, please contact Catherine and let her know at allsts@mymts.net or (204) 786-4765. The survey is completely confidential and all the results will be merged together. It will be sent out by email but those who do not have internet can participate by mail. Please advise Catherine if you cannot receive it by email.

Prayers from Parishioners: Please be sure to email Catherine at allsts@mymts.net or call the office at 204 786 4765 if you wish to have names added to this list. The list is be updated on a weekly basis.

Diocesan Update: Please continue to follow Bishop Geoff's most current Directive on the Diocesan Website. <http://www.rupertsland.ca/>

Our church office continues to stay closed as per the directive from the Government of Manitoba. Catherine will be working from home and is able to respond to email and voice mail from home during regular business hours. (Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.) Catherine will also be available for calls and/or picking up messages on Mondays and Fridays. When leaving a message or sending an email please indicate if it is an urgent matter.

Prayer Group: this week the Prayer Group is praying for Amanda Harding, Carl Harrison, Dorothy Harrison, Jay Haukenfrers and their families.

Virtual Services: The virtual service with the reserved sacrament option will continue until further notice. If you wish to take part, please contact the church office at 204.786.4765 so that arrangements can be made for you to receive the reserved sacrament.

Church Expenses: Unfortunately, the costs associated with running a parish continues, which means it is important that we try and maintain our weekly offering to the church. The request from both the Treasurer and Corporation is to reach out to our community and remind them of this ongoing need. If you would like to be put on preauthorized payments it will make your efforts much more seamless. We can provide the forms to make this happen. Simply contact the office and someone will get back to you.

Local Food Banks Need Help: We know that the need for donations to local food banks has increased and the efforts to provide support is becoming more strained. If you can drop food off to your local food bank, make a donation, or would like us to assist in delivering items please let us know.

Need Supplies? For those of you who are shut in and unable to get out to pick up needed supplies, please let us know. We have a number of people who have offered to help individuals should anyone have a need in our community.

Next readings are: Genesis 18:1-15; 21:1-7; Romans 5:1-8; Matthew 9:35-10:8
