We acknowledge that we meet and work in the Treaty 1 Land, the traditional land of the Anishinaabe, Cree, and Dakota people and the homeland of the Metis Nation.

We are grateful for their stewardship of this land and their hospitality which allows us to live, work and serve God the Creator here.

Prelude

Processional Hymn:

O Worship the King

CP 380

1 O worship the King, all glorious above;
O gratefully sing his power and his love;
our shield and defender, the Ancient of Days,
pavilioned in splendour and girded with praise.

3 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
in thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
our maker, defender, redeemer, and friend.

2 The earth with its store of wonders untold,
Almighty, thy power hath founded of old,
hath stablished it fast by a changeless decree,
and round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.

4 O measureless Might, ineffable Love,
while angels delight to hymn thee above,
the humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
with true adoration shall sing to thy praise.

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
 and the love of God,
 and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
 be with you all.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Almighty God,
People to you all hearts are open,
 all desires known,
 and from you no secrets are hidden.
 Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
 by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
 and worthily magnify your holy name;
 through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria

Glory to God on High

CP 365

1 Glory to God on high,
and peace to all on earth.
We worship you, we give you thanks,
our heavenly King.
We give you praise,
almighty God and Father blessed in glory bright.

2 Our Saviour, Jesus Christ,
the Father's only Son,
the sacrificial Lamb,
who saves the world from sin,
have mercy Lord.
Beside the Father's hand enthroned,
now hear our prayer.

3 You only are the Lord.
You only are most high.
You only are the holy one,
Lord Jesus Christ.
And now you reign
with Father and with Spirit one in glorious light.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant Almighty God,

People your Son has opened for us
a new and living way into your presence.
Give us pure hearts and constant wills
to worship you in spirit and in truth;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Genesis 28: 10-19a

Jacob left Beer-sheba and went towards Haran. He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place. And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven; and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. And the Lord stood beside him and said, 'I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring; and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your offspring. Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.' Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, 'Surely the Lord is in this place—and I did not know it!' And he was afraid, and said, 'How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.'
So Jacob rose early in the morning, and he took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it. He called that place Bethel.

Psalm 139:1–12, 23–24

Lord, You've Tested Me

Tune: Hymn to Joy (CP 425)

Lord, you've tested me and known me, all of me is plain to you;
every purpose, every action, seated standing, lying down;
every thought my brain has fathomed, every word my tongue pronounced;
you surround me every moment; Lord, how wonderful you are.

Far beyond my paltry knowledge is your character sublime.
Can I flee your awesome presence or escape beyond your power?
Heaven, grave, the farthest wavecrest? In the darkness of the night?
Still you find me, still you hold me; Lord, how wonderful you are.

You have fashioned me and formed me, shaped and spun me, watched me grow;
inexhaustible your knowledge, matchless is your tender care.
Search me, O my God, and know me, keep me from the paths of sin, watch me, lead me, try me, test me; Lord, how wonderful you are.

Second Reading

Romans 8:12-25

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, ‘Abba! Father!’ it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Blessed Jesus, At Your Word

CP 559

1 Blessed Jesus, at your word
we are gathered all to hear you.
Let our hearts and souls be stirred now to seek and love and fear you.
By your gospels pure and holy,
teach us, Lord to love you solely.

2 All our knowledge, sense and sight lie in deepest darkness shrouded till your Spirit breaks our night with your beams of truth unclouded.
You alone to God can win us,
you must work all good within us.

Gospel

Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43

He put before them another parable: ‘The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, “Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?” He answered, “An enemy has done this.” The slaves said to him, “Then do you want us

Prayers of the People

Let us lift our hearts, hands, and voices in prayer to God on behalf of all people.

A brief silence is kept.

Almighty and everlasting God, by your Spirit the whole body of your faithful people is governed and sanctified. Receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before you for all members of your holy Church. We pray for those who serve us as leaders in the Body of Christ – especially our Bishop, Geoffrey Woodcroft, our Metropolitan, Greg Kerr-Wilson, our National Indigenous Archbishop, Mark MacDonald, and our Primate, Linda Nicholls. We pray for our local leadership – especially Brent Neumann, our Wardens and Vestry, and all those who serve in our congregation. May we, with them, truly and devoutly serve you.

Loving God,

Hear our prayer.

Kindle in every heart the true love of peace, and guide with your wisdom those who exercise leadership in our global and local communities – especially Justin Trudeau, Brian Pallister, Brian Bowman and all those in our levels of government. Pour your grace upon those working to relieve and to prevent the effects of this pandemic – federal and provincial medical officers, all involved in healthcare, and those working in research. Foster their cooperation, and bless them with wisdom and skill as they serve your people.

Loving God,

Hear our prayer.

You, O God, are the comfort of all who sorrow, and the strength of all who suffer. Hear the cry of those in misery and need. In their afflictions show them your mercy, and give us, we pray, the strength to serve them. Especially we pray for: Chantal, Barbara, Margaret, Kay, Chris, Arthur, Jock, Manfred, Shirley, Judy, Evelyn, Lee, Lynn, Cory, Liz, Amanda, Elizabeth and Russ. We pray for all those who are struggling with being separated from family, from friends, and from fellow believers, in this parish and around the world. Give rest and refreshment, respite and healing to everyone who is weighed down by sickness or suffering.

Loving God,

Hear our prayer.

O Lord our God, you have made all races and nations to be one family, and you sent your Son Jesus Christ to proclaim the good news of salvation to all people. Help us to be conscious of the ways in which our lives and expectations encroach upon and devalue the lives of others. Open our eyes to see others and to see ourselves as you see us, and empower us to live in mutual love and opportunity with all peoples.

Loving God,

Hear our prayer.

O God, the giver of eternal life, we pray for those who have died in the peace of Christ, and for those whose faith is known to You alone. We give you thanks and praise for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in the lives of those in whom we experienced your love and truth.

Grant to us, and to all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, a share in the victory of our Lord Jesus Christ, and fullness of joy in the fellowship of all your saints.

Loving God,

Hear our prayer.

Eternal God, we thank you that you know each one of us; that you are continually present, and surround us with your tender care. As with our ancestor Jacob, help us to be open to your presence, and ready to follow you as your children adopted by your Holy Spirit. You know our needs before we ask. Grant our requests as may be best for us. This we ask in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Prayers prepared by Donald Phillips, adapted from Litany 17, Book of Alternative Services.)

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;
he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table.

Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy upon us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Offertory Hymn

1 The love of Jesus calls us
our joyous praise to sing;
our deeply felt thanksgivings
we now together bring,
for all God's many blessings,
unasked yet still received,
and for the generations
who faithfully believed.

3 The love of Jesus calls us
to go where he would go,
to challenge all that limits,
to change, to learn, to grow,
to know that Christ has freed us;
that prisons are no more;
for those who seek his kingdom,
Christ opens every door.

The Love of Jesus Calls Us

2 The love of Jesus Calls us, that we may always be companions on a journey,
where all the world may see that serving Christ is freedom which time does not destroy;
where Christ's command is duty,
and every duty joy.

4 The love of Jesus calls us
in swiftly changing days,
to be God's co-creators
in new and wondrous ways;
that God with men and women
may so transform the earth,
that love and peace and justice
may give God's kingdom birth.

Offering Prayer

Celebrant O God,
People accept our praise and thanksgiving.
Help us in all we do
to offer ourselves as a true and living sacrifice;
through Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Holy Communion

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant It is indeed right that we should praise you,
gracious God,
for you created all things.
You formed us in your own image:
male and female you created us.
When we turned away from you in sin,
you did not cease to care for us,
but opened a path of salvation for all people.
You made a covenant with Israel,
and through your servants Abraham and Sarah gave the promise of a blessing to all nations.
Through Moses you led your people
from bondage into freedom;
through the prophets
you renewed your promise of salvation.

Therefore, with them, and with all your saints who have served you in every age, we give thanks and raise our voices
 to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high
 - - - - - est. Blest is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - - - - - est.

Celebrant Holy God, source of life and goodness,
 all creation rightly gives you praise.
 In the fullness of time,
 you sent your Son Jesus Christ,
 to share our human nature,
 to live and die as one of us,
 to reconcile us to you,
 the God and Father of all.
 He healed the sick
 and ate and drank with outcasts and sinners;
 he opened the eyes of the blind and proclaimed the good news of your kingdom
 to the poor and to those in need.
 In all things he fulfilled your gracious will.

Gracious God,
his perfect sacrifice
destroys the power of sin and death;
by raising him to life
you give us life for evermore.
Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith.

All Christ has died.
 Christ is risen.
 Christ will come again.

Recalling his death,
proclaiming his resurrection,
and looking for his coming again in glory,
we offer you ourselves.
Send your Holy Spirit upon us that we may be one body and one holy people,
a living sacrifice in Jesus Christ, our Lord.
Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory is yours, almighty Father,
now and for ever.

All Amen.

Celebrant And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us,
we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. (1Cor. 10 16b-17)

The Celebrant invites the people to share in communion and may say, Celebrant The gifts of God for the People of God.

All Thanks be to God.

The people then receive communion with these words.

The body of Christ. Amen.

Celebrant O God,
All as we are strengthened in these holy mysteries,
may our lives be a continual offering,
holy and acceptable in your sight;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Glory to God,
All whose power, working in us,
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessing

Hymn Forth in Thy Name (vss. 1,2,4,5) CP 467

1 Forth in thy name, O Lord, I go,
my daily labour to pursue;
thee, only thee, resolved to know
in all I think or speak or do.

3 Give me to bear thy easy yoke,
and every moment watch and pray,
and still to things eternal look,
and hasten to thy glorious day;

2 The task thy wisdom hath assigned O let me cheerfully fulfil,
in all my works thy presence find,
and prove thy good and perfect will.

4 for thee delightfully employ whate'er thy bounteous grace hath given;
and run my course with even joy,
and closely walk with thee to heaven.

Postlude

Our Mission Statement

All Saints Anglican Church is dedicated to be a faithful mission, to proclaim the word of God and become a living example through love, peace, justice and equality within a diverse community.

Those celebrating birthdays this week are Argel Mitchell, Kenny Hazell, Ryan Kennedy, Avril Brookes.

Cycle of Prayer – July 19, 2020

In the Anglican Communion worldwide: we pray for the Episcopal Church in the Philippines.

In the Anglican Church of Canada, Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada: we pray for Linda, our Primate; Mark, our National Indigenous Archbishop; Greg, our Metropolitan; Geoffrey, our Bishop; Jason, the MNO Synodical Bishop; Michael, our Companion Diocese Bishop, Archbishop Gregory Kerr Wilson, Indigenous Bishop Sid Black and the people of the Diocese of Calgary.

In the Diocese: we pray for the parish of St. Mary Magdalene and for our congregations and communities.

In our parish family: we pray for Chantal, Barbara, Margaret, Kay, Chris, Arthur, Jock, Manfred, Shirley, Judy, Evelyn, Lee, Lynn, Cory, Liz, Amanda, Elizabeth and Russ.

Notices

Prayers for Parishioners: Please be sure to email Catherine at allsts@mymts.net or call the office at 204 786 4765 if you wish to have names added to this list. The list is updated on a weekly basis.

Diocesan Update: Please continue to follow Bishop Geoff's most current Directive on the Diocesan Website. <http://www.rupertslnd.ca/>

Our church office continues to remain closed. In order to support the Worship Team as they work hard to film and provide the weekly services to the parish, Catherine has agreed to change her days of employment while working from home. For the foreseeable future she will be working on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Catherine will continue to oversee the office phone on Mondays and Fridays and will take Sundays and Tuesdays off. When leaving a message or sending an email please indicate if it is an urgent matter.

Prayer Group: this week the Prayer Group is praying for Cynthia & Ken Manswell, Carolynn Martin, David Martin, Shirley Maslen, Maureen Matthews and their families.

Church Expenses: Unfortunately, the costs associated with running a parish continues, which means it is important that we try and maintain our weekly offering to the church. The request from both the Treasurer and Corporation is to reach out to our community and remind them of this ongoing need. If you would like to be put on preauthorized payments it will make your efforts much more seamless. We can provide the forms to make this happen. Simply contact the office and someone will get back to you.

Air Conditioner: We have a parishioner who would like to give away a window air conditioner. The unit fits a window opening of 23 – 36 inches. Please call the church office if you would like further information. (204 786 4765)

Local Food Banks Need Help: We know that the need for donations to local food banks has increased and the efforts to provide support is becoming more strained. If you can drop food off to your local food bank, make a donation, or would like us to assist in delivering items please let us know.

Next weeks readings are: Genesis 29:15-28; Romans 8:26-39; Matthew 13:31-33, 44-52.
