Processional Hymn:

Lo, God Is Here!

CP 328

1 Lo, God is here! Let us adore, and own how awesome is this place;
let all within us feel God's power and bow before the hidden face.
Redeeming Lord, your grace we prove,
serve you with awe, with reverence love.

2 Lo, God is here! Both day and night united choirs of angels sing;
to God, enthroned above all height, heaven's host their noblest praises bring;
disdain not, Lord, our meaner song,
who praise you with a stammering tongue.

3 Being of beings, may our praise your courts with grateful fragrance fill;
still may we stand before your face, still hear and do your sovereign will;
to you may all our thoughts arise,
ceaseless, accepted sacrifice.

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant Almighty God,

People your Son Jesus Christ has taught us that what we do for the least of your children we do also for him.

Give us the will to serve others
as he was the servant of all,
who gave up his life and died for us,
but lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Genesis 24: 34-38, 42-49, 58-67

So he said, 'I am Abraham's servant. The Lord has greatly blessed my master, and he has become wealthy; he has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female slaves, camels and donkeys. And Sarah my master's wife bore a son to my master when she was old; and he has given him all that he has. My master made me swear, saying, "You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live; but you shall go to my father's house, to my kindred, and get a wife for my son."

'I came today to the spring, and said, "O Lord, the God of my master Abraham, if now you will only make successful the way I am going! I am standing here by the spring of water; let the young woman who comes out to draw, to whom I shall say, 'Please give me a little water from your jar to drink,' and who will say to me, 'Drink, and I will draw for your camels also'—let her be the woman whom the Lord has appointed for my master's son."

'Before I had finished speaking in my heart, there was Rebekah coming out with her water-jar on her shoulder; and she went down to the spring, and drew. I said to her, "Please let me drink." She quickly let down her jar from her shoulder, and said, "Drink, and I will also water your camels." So I drank, and she also watered the camels. Then I asked her, "Whose daughter are you?" She said, "The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him." So I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her arms. Then I bowed my head and worshipped the Lord, and blessed the Lord, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me by the right way to obtain the daughter of my master's kinsman for his son. Now then, if you will deal loyally and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, tell me, so that I may turn either to the right hand or to the left.' And they called Rebekah, and said to her, 'Will you go with this man?' She said, 'I will.' So they sent away their sister Rebekah and her nurse along with Abraham's servant and his men. And they blessed Rebekah and said to her, 'May you, our sister, become thousands of myriads; may your offspring gain possession of the gates of their foes.'

Then Rebekah and her maids rose up, mounted the camels, and followed the man; thus the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

Now Isaac had come from Beer-lahai-roi, and was settled in the Negeb. Isaac went out in the evening to walk in the field; and looking up, he saw camels coming. And Rebekah looked up, and when she saw Isaac, she slipped quickly from the camel, and said to the servant, 'Who is the man over there, walking in the field to meet us?' The servant said, 'It is my master.' So she took her veil and covered herself. And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done. Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent. He took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Psalm 45: 10–17

Tune: Twenty-Fourth CP 487

1. "My daughter, leave your former home;
Consider what I say:
Your beauty gives the king delight
So honour him today.

2. All those from Tyre have brought a gift;
The rich will seek your aid."
Behold the princess, beautiful,
In golden robes arrayed

3. In many-coloured robes she comes,
The bridesmaids following;
With joy and gladness they are brought
To stand before the king.

4. In place of fathers, princely sons
Shall be your heritage;
Your name, O king, shall be renowned
And praised from age to age.

Second Reading

Romans 7:15-25a

I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Now if I do what I do not want, I agree that the law is good. But in fact it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. I can will what is right, but I cannot do it. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me.

So I find it to be a law that when I want to do what is good, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God in my inmost self, but I see in my members another law at war with the law of my mind, making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!

Gospel

Matthew 11:16-19, 25-30

‘But to what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the market-places and calling to one another, “We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not mourn.” For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, “He has a demon”; the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, “Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax-collectors and sinners!” Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.’

At that time Jesus said, 'I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

'Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.'

Sermon

The Rev. Brent Neumann

The Apostles Creed

Celebrant Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,
People I believe in God,
the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again
to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Let us lift our hearts, hands, and voices in prayer to God on behalf of all people.

A brief silence is kept.

Gracious God, we give you thanks for your faithfulness to us, for your constant care for us, and for never letting us down. Just as you kept your word to Abraham, Sarah, and Isaac, and provided for them and sustained them, so too you provide for us and allow us to thrive. Even against all odds, your will and your plans for us are not thwarted. We give you thanks for being our provider and our sustainer.

Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Lord, we confess that we often struggle with our faithfulness to you. Even though our intentions may be good and honourable, so often we fail to live up to the life you call us to live. The world around us is in turmoil and distress, and there is unrest in this country and nations around the world, often because of self-absorbed and uncaring leadership. We pray for all the victims of intolerance and violence, suffering even by the hand of those whose duty it is to protect them. We ask for forgiveness for our own part in perpetuating intolerance, injustice, and inequity. We are deeply sorry, and pray that you would give us the fortitude to follow your way, and not the ways of the world.

Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Grant that your Church may always be as gentle and lowly of heart as its Lord and Saviour. Use it to draw people who are heavy-laden by the world and their own sinfulness, to the One who will give them rest. Let the Church's high calling – of faith toward you and fervent love toward others – be a light and joyous burden to bear.

Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Thank you for the people of this congregation. Help us to see one another with the eyes of Jesus. Some are carrying heavy burdens, known only to them and to you. Ease their load; and give each of us such gentle hearts and words that we, too, refresh their spirits. Shape all our words and works, so that many may find encouragement, forgiveness, hope, and renewed joy in loving and serving you.

Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

We pray for all those who are struggling with being separated from family, from friends, and from fellow believers, in this parish and around the world. Give rest and refreshment, respite and healing to everyone who are weighed down by sickness or suffering. Especially we pray for: Chantal, Barbara, Margaret, Kay, Chris, Arthur, Jock, Manfred, Shirley, Judy, Evelyn, Lee, Lynn, Cory, Liz, Amanda, Elizabeth and Russ.

Ease also the heavy load of care and worry that their loved ones shoulder; and give to us all the joy of your saving help.

Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Everliving God, we give thanks for the life, love, and labour of your faithful departed servants. Until we are reunited with them and with your children of every time and place, bless us with your steadfast mercy and loving-kindness. Yoked to our Saviour, and guided by his Spirit, let us help one another in bearing the necessary burdens of this life. Lead us into the eternal rest and unending joy which you have promised to everyone whom you have redeemed through the merits of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Almighty God, fulfil now our prayers and petitions as may be best for us, granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come eternal life; for you, O God, are good and loving, and we glorify you through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, in the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

(Prayers prepared by Dietrich Bartel, based on lutherancore.website.)

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table.

Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy upon us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Offertory Hymn

I Heard The Voice of Jesus Say

CP 508

1 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
“Come unto me and rest:
lay down, thou weary one, lay down thy head upon my breast.”
I came to Jesus as I was,
so weary, worn, and sad;
I found in him a resting place,
and he has made me glad.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus say, “Behold, I freely give the living water; thirsty one, stoop down and drink and live.”
I came to Jesus and I drank of that life-giving stream;
my thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
and now I love in him.

3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
“I am this dark world’s light;
look unto me, thy morn shall rise,
and all thy day be bright.”
I looked to Jesus and I found in him my star, my sun;
and in that light of life I’ll walk till travelling days are done.

Offering Prayer

Celebrant God of heaven and earth,
People receive our sacrifice of praise,
and strengthen us
for the perfect freedom of your service, through our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Holy Communion

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant We give you thanks and praise, almighty God,
for the gift of a world full of wonder,
and for our life which comes from you.
By your power you sustain the universe.
People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Glo - ry to you for ev - er and ev - er.

Celebrant You created us to love you with all our heart,
and to love each other as ourselves,
but we rebel against you by the evil that we do.

In Jesus, your Son,
 you bring healing to our world and gather us into one great family.
 Therefore, with all who serve you on earth and in heaven,
 we praise your wonderful name, as we sing

Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high
 - - - est. Blest is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - - - est.

Celebrant We give you thanks and praise, loving Father, because in sending Jesus, your Son, to us
 you showed us how much you love us.
 He cares for the poor and the hungry.
 He suffers with the sick and the rejected.
 Betrayed and forsaken, he did not strike back but overcame hatred with love.
 On the cross
 he defeated the power of sin and death.

By raising him from the dead you show us the power of your love to bring new life to all your people.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant Gracious God,
we celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus,
and we offer ourselves to you in him.
Send your Holy Spirit on us that we may know the presence of Jesus and share in the life of the family of your children.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant Father, you call us to be your servants;
fill us with the courage and love of Jesus,
that all the world may gather in joy
at the table of your kingdom.
We sing your praise, almighty Father,
through Jesus, our Lord,
in the power of the Holy Spirit,
now and for ever.

People Glory to you for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us,
we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. (1Cor. 10 16b-17)

The Celebrant invites the people to share in communion and may say,

Celebrant The gifts of God for the People of God.

All Thanks be to God.

The people then receive communion with these words.

The body of Christ. Amen.

Celebrant O God,
All may we who have shared in holy things never fail to serve you in your world,
and so come to the fullness of joy,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Glory to God,
All whose power, working in us,
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
for ever and ever. Amen.

CP 505

1 Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart; naught be all else to me, save that thou art-thou my best thought, by day or by night, waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.

3 Riches I heed not, nor the world's empty praise, thou mine inheritance, now and always:
thou and thou only, first in my heart,
high King of heaven, my treasure thou art.

2 Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true Word;
I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord;
thou my great Father; thine own may I be,
thou in me dwelling, and I one with thee.

4 High King of heaven, when victory is won,
may I reach heaven's joys, bright heaven's Sun!
