Prelude

Processional Hymn:

God, Your Glorious Presence

CP 337

1 God, your glorious presence
draws us to adore you,
and with awe appear before you.

In your holy temple
all keep mystic silence,
prostrate lie with deepest reverence.

You alone
God we own,
you our God and Saviour:
praise your name for ever.

2 In God's glorious presence hear the harps resounding!
See the hosts the throne surrounding!

"Holy, holy, holy,"
hear the hymn ascending,
angels, saints, their voices blending!

Bow your ear
to us here:
hear, O Christ, the praises
that your church now raises.

3 Fount of every blessing,
purify my spirit,
trusting only in your merit.
Like the holy angels
who behold your splendour,
may I ceaseless worship render.
Let your will ever still rule your church terrestrial,
as the hosts celestial.

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Almighty God,
People to you all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from you no secrets are hidden.
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria*Glory to God on High*

CP 365

1 Glory to God on high,
and peace to all on earth.

We worship you, we give you thanks,
our heavenly King.

We give you praise,
almighty God and Father blessed in glory bright.

2 Our Saviour, Jesus Christ,
the Father's only Son,
the sacrificial Lamb,
who saves the world from sin,
have mercy Lord.

Beside the Father's hand enthroned,
now hear our prayer.

3 You only are the Lord.
You only are most high.
You only are the holy one,
Lord Jesus Christ.
And now you reign
with Father and with Spirit one in glorious light.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant Author and Giver of all good things,

People graft in our hearts the love of your name,
increase in us true religion,
nourish us in all goodness,
and of your great mercy keep us in the same;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Exodus 3: 1-15

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, 'I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up.' When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, 'Moses, Moses!' And he said, 'Here I am.' Then he said, 'Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.' He said further, 'I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the Lord said, 'I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.’ But Moses said to God, ‘Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?’ He said, ‘I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain.’

But Moses said to God, ‘If I come to the Israelites and say to them, “The God of your ancestors has sent me to you”, and they ask me, “What is his name?” what shall I say to them?’ God said to Moses, ‘I am who I am.’ He said further, ‘Thus you shall say to the Israelites, “I am has sent me to you.”’ God also said to Moses, ‘Thus you shall say to the Israelites, “The Lord, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you”: This is my name for ever, and this my title for all generations.

Psalm 105:1-6, 23-26, 45c

Give Thanks and Praise

Tune: St. Anne, CP 528

1. Give thanks and praise, make known God’s Name, and deeds to everyone;
Sing praise, sing praise and tell of all the wonders God has done.
2. Let hearts that seek the Lord be glad, and glory in God’s grace;
Seek for the Lord and all God’s strength, seek constantly God’s face.
3. Remember all the wonders and the judgments God made known,
O Abraham and Sarah’s heirs, those chosen as God’s own.
4. When Israel came to Egypt as a foreign colony,
God made them all too great and strong for Egypt’s mastery.
5. So Egypt then became their foes, but God made them a way,
And sent them Moses, Aaron too. Praise God, hallelujah!

Second Reading

Romans 12:9-21

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, ‘Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.’ No, ‘if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads.’ Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

we are gathered all to hear you.
Let our hearts and souls be stirred now to seek and love and fear you.
By your gospel pure and holy,
teach us, Lord to love you solely.

2 All our knowledge, sense and sight lie in deepest darkness shrouded till your Spirit breaks our night with your beams of truth unclouded.
You alone to God can win us,
you must work all good within us.

Gospel

Matthew 16:21-28

From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, ‘God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.’ But he turned and said to Peter, ‘Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.’

Then Jesus told his disciples, ‘If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?’

‘For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.’

The Nicene Creed

Celebrant Let us confess our faith, as we say,
People We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father.
With the Father and the Son
he is worshipped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Let us pray for the church, the world, and all people according to their need.

A brief silence is kept.

Almighty God, you call us into a life of discipleship, a life of following your will and design for our lives, a life of being your hands, your feet, and your voice in this world. We are amazed and humbled at your faith in us. At times, this calling is more than we can fathom, imagine, leading us, like Moses, to question your confidence in us. As we live out your design for us, strengthen us with the assurance that it is your work, not ours, that is being done.

Lord, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

Gracious God, you demonstrated to us through your Son what it means to live a life of discipleship. You made it clear through Jesus that the way can be hard, even fatal. But just as you promised Moses, you also promised us through Jesus Christ that you will be with us, even to the end of the earth. Give us strength to bear whatever crosses come our way. Give us strength to deny ourselves, rather than to deny you and your will for us. Help us realize that it is futile to try to save ourselves, but that our salvation is found only in you.

Lord, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

God, you have taught us what it means to be your disciples. Help us to live lives of genuine love. Teach us to love and honour each other. Make us joyous in hope, patient in tribulation, and constant in prayer. Grant us grace to be generous and hospitable, and to bless even our persecutors. Grant us strength to love our enemies, to feed them and to care for them, rather than to fight them and fend them off. Teach us to live harmoniously and peaceably with all, friend and foe alike, so far as it depends on us, repaying no one evil for evil, but to overcome evil with good.

Lord, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

O Lord, we remember all those who are returning to schools, colleges, and universities at this time. Many students, parents, and teachers are grappling with questions regarding this step, just as we as a congregation work through procedures and prepare for meeting together. We pray for your guidance and wisdom in these times of transition. As we ask for your guidance in our own preparations for meeting again, so too do we ask for your guidance and wisdom for teachers, students and parents in their preparations and decisions regarding the return to the classroom.

Lord, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

We pray for all who are overwhelmed by winds and waves of adversity, grief, and suffering. Give us grace and wisdom to encourage, strengthen, and support them. Especially we pray for: Chantal, Barbara, Margaret, Kay, Chris, Arthur, Jock, Manfred, Shirley, Judy, Evelyn, Lee, Lynn, Cory, Liz, Amanda, Dorothy, Elizabeth, Russ and Jean F. We pray for all those who are struggling with being separated from family, from friends, and from fellow believers, in this parish and around the world. Give rest and refreshment, respite and healing to everyone who is weighed down by sickness or suffering.

Lord, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

O God, the giver of eternal life, we pray for those who have died in the peace of Christ, remembering especially Dayna Van Benthem's father, Don Canfield; and for those whose faith is known to You alone. We give you thanks and praise for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in the lives of those in whom we experienced your love and truth. Grant to us, and to all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, a share in the victory of our Lord Jesus Christ, and fullness of joy in the fellowship of all your saints.

Lord, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

Almighty God, fulfil now our prayers and petitions as may be best for us, granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come eternal life; for you, O God, are good and loving, and we glorify you through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, in the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

(Prayers by Dietrich Bartel)

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table.

Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy upon us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

1 Jesus calls us! O'er the tumult of our life's wild, restless sea,
day by day his sweet voice soundeth,
saying, "Christian, follow me!"

4 In our joys and in our sorrows, days of toil and hours of ease,
still he calls, in cares and pleasures,
"Christian, love me more than these."

3 Jesus calls us from the worship of the vain world's golden store;
from each idol that would keep us,
saying, "Christian, love me more."

5 Jesus calls us! By thy mercies, Saviour, may we hear thy call,
give our hearts to thine obedience,
serve and love thee best of all.

Offering Prayer

Celebrant Merciful God,

and to love each other as ourselves,
but we rebel against you by the evil that we do.

you bring healing to our world and gather us into one great family.
Therefore, with all who serve you
on earth and in heaven,
we praise your wonderful name, as we sing

Celebrant We give you thanks and praise, loving Father, because in sending Jesus, your Son, to us
you showed us how much you love us.
He cares for the poor and the hungry.
He suffers with the sick and the rejected.
Betrayed and forsaken, he did not strike back but overcame hatred with love.

On the cross
he defeated the power of sin and death.
By raising him from the dead
you show us the power of your love to bring new life to all your people.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant Gracious God,
we celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus,
and we offer ourselves to you in him.
Send your Holy Spirit on us that we may know the presence of Jesus and share in the life of the family of your children.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant Father, you call us to be your servants;
fill us with the courage and love of Jesus,
that all the world may gather in joy
at the table of your kingdom.
We sing your praise, almighty Father,
through Jesus, our Lord,
in the power of the Holy Spirit,
now and for ever.

People Glory to you for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us,
we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. (1Cor. 10 16b-17)

The Celebrant invites the people to share in communion and may say, Celebrant The gifts of God for the People of God.

All Thanks be to God.

The people then receive communion with these words.

The body of Christ. Amen.

For those not receiving reserved sacrament.

Celebrant Thanks be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits you have given us in your life, death, resurrection and eternal reign.

People Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother, may I know you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly, day by day. Amen.

(Adapted from the Church of England "Guidance on Spiritual Communion")

Celebrant Almighty God,
All you renew us at your table with the bread of life.
May you strengthen us in love and help us to serve you in each other.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Glory to God,
All whose power, working in us,
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Hymn	How Clear Is Our Vocation	CP 466
1 How clear is our vocation, Lord, when once we heed your call: to live according to your word, and daily learn, refreshed, restored, that you are Lord of all, and will not let us fall.	3 We mark your saints, how they became in hindrances more sure, whose joyful virtues put to shame the casual way we wear your name, and by our faults obscure your power to cleanse and cure.
2 But if, forgetful, we should find your yoke is hard to bear; if worldly pressures fray the mind and love itself cannot unwind its tangled skein of care: our inward life repair.	4 In what you give us, Lord, to do, together or alone, in old routines or ventures new, may we not cease to look to you, the cross you hung upon, all you endeavoured done.

Dismissal

Leader Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Announcements – August 30, 2020

With Brent's retirement, members of the Corporation will take turns providing all of you with news about our blessed congregation. Despite Covid, there is a lot going on!

Retirement Purse – A voluntary Retirement Purse has been created as a way for interested Parishioners of All Saints Church to thank Brent Neumann for his years of service and dedication to our church and community building. You can send cheques to All Saints Church, 175 Colony Street, Winnipeg, MB, R3C 1W2, Attention: John Van Benthem. Please write on the cheque that it is intended for the Priest Retirement Fund. Also note all contributions are considered gifts and therefore no tax receipt can be issued. The Purse will be open for your gifts for the next 5 weeks. The total amount will be presented without attribution of names or amounts.

Meeting with Bishop Geoff – On Tuesday, July 21, Corporation members met with Bishop Geoff and Archdeacon Simon Blaikie to discuss the process to recruit a new priest for All Saints. Following are the highlights of that important meeting:

- The Bishop informed us that Bishop Don has agreed to continue as an Honorary Assistant at All Saints. He is willing to preside and preach as mutually agreeable and provide emergency pastoral care. All members of Corporation expressed how thankful they are for Bishop Don's help, advice and taking of services.
- Bishop Geoff proposed that he look for a Priest who would start with a term of 12+ months but who could be made a permanent Incumbent at the end of his interim term if the Bishop, the congregation and the interim appointee all agreed.
- A notice and description of our congregation has been sent out. It could be three+ months before anyone is in place, particularly given that we are starting recruitment in the middle of summer (and Covid).

Prayers for Parishioners: Please be sure to email Catherine at allsts@mymts.net or call the office at 204 786 4765 if you wish to have names added to this list. The list is updated on a weekly basis.

Diocesan Update: Please continue to follow Bishop Geoff's most current Directive on the Diocesan Website. <http://www.rupertsland.ca/>

Help with Church Expenses: Unfortunately, the costs associated with running a parish continues, which means it is important that we try and maintain our weekly offering to the church. The request from both the Treasurer and Corporation is to reach out to our community and remind them of this ongoing need. If you would like to be put on preauthorized payments it will make your efforts much more seamless. We can provide the forms to make this happen. Simply contact the office and someone will get back to you.

Organ Restoration: The first stage of restoration work to our wonderful Casavant Freres pipe organ is now complete. The work concentrated on the Swell division and entailed removal of significant parts that were refurbished in the Casavant factory in St. Hyacinthe QC. Some work was also completed on the pedal division and the hiss of escaping air we all became accustomed to has now been remedied. Dr. Dietrich Bartel is extremely pleased with the outcome and we all look forward to the next stages at a future date.

Broadway Street Doors Restoration: You may have noticed plywood sheets where our great Broadway doors normally sit. David Wilson arranged for all four doors to be removed and completely refurbished by a European trained wood finisher who instructs at Red River College. The doors were in very sad shape and should be completely revitalized and rehung by early September.

News for those interested in renting a unit in West Broadway Commons: WBC will be open for tenants starting in December 2020. While marketing with official rental rates will not start until the fall, you can put your name on a waiting list by emailing our Property Manager, Crystal Wels at c.wels@uwinnipeg.ca if you think you would be interested. Please make sure to say that you are part of our congregation. There is a lot of early demand for the affordable suites, in particular, and units will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis, so get your name in quickly. If you are interested in an affordable suite, you will have to be prepared to provide the following information:

- Each adult (18+) years of age must complete the application form.
- Provide verification of your income such as the last two pay stubs or a confirmation letter from your current employer or budget letter.
- A current copy of your Certified Income Summary issued by CRA is mandatory in order to qualify for the discount.
- Provide Government issued photo I.D such as a driver's license or passport.
- Provide a copy of your Manitoba Health Card if you have dependent(s).
- Provide your last landlord's contact information in order for the office to do a reference check.

- $25.00 credit check fee must be paid in advance before we will process your application. If you have a recent copy (within the last 8 weeks) you may provide the office a copy of that document.
- International Students must provide a study permit as well as 3 months of printed bank statements. Bank statements must show deposits and current balance.
- Unverifiable income will NOT be considered.
- In cases where rent will be more than 30% of income, a co-signer will be requested.

Next weeks readings are: Exodus 12:1-14, Romans 13:8-14; Matthew 18:15-20
